Hon. Subbarow the Hon'ble Dy. Commr. sanctioned the dismissal of the Shanbogue and the appointment of Venkatārungappa.

Annappa having died Subbanna son of Innerappa and nephew of the deceased represented in July 1882 to the Dy. Commr. that himself and the deceased were divided members, that he had no concern with the misappropriation of Government money made by the deceased during famine and prayed that the hereditary appointment which has been conferred on a Stranger might be restored to him.

Shamanna also submitted a petition requesting that as he was the Haikar to the office it might be conferred on him and intimating that Subbanna was granted an Endorsement on his application for the office to the Effect that orders could not be Kanakō Shetti as he belonged to the family of the deceased Channabasappa.

The Amildar to whom the above petition had been referred for Enquiry and who had also been directed to report whether Karasimma Murti Irappa of Annappa was living and if so, also upon his age and qualification, summoned all the parties and Examined them.

Jammia of Bellenahalli stated:- 6-1-83

Karasimma Murti Irappa of deceased Annappa Lingayat Channabasappa of Holavanahalli is my nephews (Sister's Son) He is 10 years old. He and his mother are under my protection. As he is a minor I speak on his behalf. The Channabasike Register of Holavanahalli was in the name of Annappa, Karasimma Murti's Grandfather. On his death Government appointed one Venkatalingaiya. He is not related to them and is of a different caste. He is not in any way connected with the Math. There is no other means of livelihood to this boy than this Channabasike. fit. Depuis lors, Marie est devenue si différente de ses autres filles si dédaigneuse, si hautaine, si dédaigneuse de tout ce qui l'entoure que Mme de Villefort, qui ne la connaît que depuis quelques mois, est déjà presque aussi étrangère à sa fille que le reste de la famille.

Maximilien dit :

— Mais ne pensez-vous pas, monsieur, que Valentine, qui a vécu dans une autre sphère que celle de son père, ne pourra pas s'habituer à ces mœurs nouvelles, et que Mme de Villefort ne sera pas obligée de la renvoyer à sa grand-mère pour ne pas être elle-même renvoyée de chez elle ?

— Non, répondit Morrel, car Valentine est trop heureuse de rester auprès de son père pour ne pas faire tout ce qu'il voudra pour rester auprès de lui.
Et puis, ajouta-t-il en souriant avec mélancolie, Valentine est une de ces femmes qui savent se faire aimer partout où elles sont, et qui, si elles ne sont pas aimées, ne s'en aperçoivent même pas, tant elles sont occupées à aimer elles-mêmes.
Maximilien baissa la tête comme pour cacher à Morrel l'expression de son visage qui trahissait malgré lui les sentiments qui agitaient son cœur. Mais ce regard fut inutile, car Morrel continuait :

— Mais, Maximilien, je ne vous ai pas encore dit comment j'avais été averti de l'arrivée de Monte-Cristo.

the duty till Pramadi. We were helping him in preparing accounts for him. I myself prepared the Chillasi and Bara-hannum accounts from Srikurukka to Vikrama. Annappa having embezzled Government money he was dismissed the Service and a Shroff appointed in his stead. Though it is 12 years from Vasu to Vijaya Narasimma Murti has not as yet acquired sufficient insight into the work. Only 3 or 4 years have elapsed since he attained his majority. When the Registrar of Korlapri had filed a suit to recover possession of the office it was decided that the officiator could not be ousted from office. Similarly filed a regular suit to obtain possession of the office. When I obtained possession of the office one Venkatarayya a Brāhmaṇa was in office. On my representation Rev. Krishna Murti appointed Narasimma Murti to the office and ordered me to conduct the duties. The Rev. Code introduced into the Province in 1894 provides that if there are several inspectors to the Shanbhaoke office each of them should conduct the duties for five years by rotation. Narasimma Murti hardly agreed to the office being he by no means consented to take up the duties. Moreover the village being large the officiator should reside in it. It is enjoined in the Rev. Code that a person who owns no lands in a village should not be appointed to the office of Shanbhoque of the village. All the lands which Narasimma

Mr. Wortley's grandfather had once sold his Government in satisfaction of the amount Embezzled by him - He owns neither a house nor fixed land. The Inam lands were already apportioned into four divisions and Each of us is paying the Jodi due to his share - He now resides at Chilgar halli - During Collection Season 800 or 900 Rs. will be collected in this village Every month. The Collections are usually made by the Shanbogue or the Patel - Government should consider about the confusion & the rules as the village contains factions - Even should the Govt. appoint this boy to conduct the duty by turn he will have to reside permanently in the village for a period of 3 or 4 years before he could gather local Experience and get an insight into the accounts to vacate the office as directed Hence that the office being concerned to Authority over similar letter passed in the aforesaid regular suit may be passed in this case also.

The Dy. Commissioner thereupon passed an order to the effect that Channamma's objection &c. that as Narasimma Murthy owned neither land nor house the office should not be conferred on him was not pertinent, that there was no order directing that the office should be held by them by turns, that it would not seem just & proper either to conduct the office by turns or to insist upon the regular suit, that since Channamma was merely appointed to conduct the duties till Narasimma Murthy became of age conducted by a Jemadar observes that he was at a loss to know how the Jemadar could be made responsible when the registerer was appointed and enquires whether the Jemadar was an Inspector, also how long since he had been conducting the duty and also as to the age of the registerer.

5-1-1894 The Dy. Accountant in submitting the order called for reported that the Jemadar was the Jamadar of the registerer and also an Inspector. He had been conducting the duty from 1st April 1883. Consequently it was thought that he would help the registerer after the handing over charge of the office to him. The registerer was 20 years old and fit to conduct the duty. There was no objection to the charge being handed over to him. Warrant might be issued as already requested. The submission of the Baramahal's petitions was delayed with a view that the Baramahal might get local experience and also to have the previous years accounts adjusted.

16-1-94 The Dy. Commissioner thereupon ordered to the effect that as it was understood from his reports that the officiator was not a mere Jemadar but an Inspector and as he had been doing the duty for the past 10 years he could not be removed from office.

This having been duly communicated to the petitioners by an Endorsement of 20-1

He appealed to the Dy. Commissioner urging that he was 20 years old and competent to conduct the Shambopei duties, that in September 1892 when he had requested the Dy. Commissioner to let the office for him, Shamanna was ordered to vacate it, but that he requested first that he might be permitted to continue in office for two months and again for two years more, that he evaded doing so, that this order conveyed to him by the Dy. Commissioner was made during his absence, and that Shamanna was bound to vacate the office both in accordance with the previous order of the District and his agreement and prayed that the office might be caused to be vacated for him.

On this the Dy. Commissioner ordered as follows:-

6-2-94

As the present incumbent who has been looking after the duties for the last 10 years says that he is the superior to the office and the petitioner admits it, there is no reason to remove the superior from the office. If he had been a mere servant there would not have been any hindrance to his being ousted.

Against this order the petitioner has appealed urging:-

1. That the order is opposed to the Dy. Comrs.
